Constantinople, December 16.

THE contagious Distemper, which broke out some Time since in this City, is now entirely ceased. Letters from Aleppo of the 13th of November say, that they had received Advice from Bassora, that Solyman Pascha, of that Place and Bagdat, had received the Sword and Sable Furr, sent by the Grand Signor, for his Victory gained over the Courds, and a full Confirmation of all the Governments he holds, or has held. They had received Advices from Banderruck at Bassora, which confirmed that Kherim Chaan, who had hitherto governed at Ispahan for some Time, had been twice vanquished by Azaat Chan, an Ophgoon, who has declared himself in Favour of one Schach Sultan Hussein, returned lately from Russia, where, it is said, he lay long concealed, and now gives himself for the Son of the late Schach Tamas: He governs, for the present, Ispahan and the adjacent Countries. Cherim Khan fled from thence, to attempt to seize Schiraz; but that Governor, who had submitted to him whilst he was at Ispahan, refusing him Admittance, he has laid Siege to it. Other Advices concerning this Schach Hussein say, that though he has mentioned in his Manifest, his Arrival from Russia, it is certain, he was for a considerable Time at Bagdat, with the Persian Ambassador Mustapha Khan, who was intended for this Court, and since that he has appeared in several Forms in the Kingdom of Persia; but we are without any certain Advice of his Success, without this from Bassora can be depended on.

Lisbon, Jan. 6. The Court having received repeated Advice of some Corfairs from the Coast of Africa being cruizing in the Mouth of the Tagus, and that they have actually taken several of our Fishing-Vessels, Orders were given for two Men of War to sail immediately in Quest of them. Two Ships accordingly put to Sea Yesterday Morning, and 'tis not doubted but that they will soon clear the Coast of this Kingdom from those Pyrates.

Genoa, Jan. 7. Advice having been received at Court, that several armed Vessels were put to Sea from Tunis, in order to cruize in the Sardinian Sea, Orders are given for manning two of our Chebecks, which are to be stationed in such Manner as to protect the Navigation of this Coast from the Insults of those Pyrates.

Rome, Jan. 12. The Pope having appointed M. Buono to be Auditor and M. Perelli to be Treasurer of the Apostolick Chamber, they took the usual Oaths on Monday last, before the Secretary of State, to qualify themselves for their respective Employments. Within these few Days past all the Beggars in this City have been taken into Custody by the Pope's express Order; those capable of Business are to be sent to Anzio, to work at the new Port which is making there.

Florence, Jan. 18. The King of the Two Sicilies has issued fresh Orders to forbid all Commerce between his Subjects and the Island of Malta, to seize the Effects belonging to that Order within his Dominions, and to sequester the Commanderies that belong to the Knights of that Order, who do not reside in his State. This is done in Consequence of the repeated Refusal which the Order of Malta has given to admit a Royal Visitation of the Cathedral and Bishoprick of Malta, which his Sicilian Majesty claims a Right to send at his Pleasure. As this Affair interests the Order of Malta where-ever dispersed, it has occasioned great Alarm, and has been generally disapproved of at Rome; from whence Orders have been sent all over the Ecclesiastical State, to supply the Island of Malta with Provisions, though it will be very inconvenient and dangerous for the Maltese to be obliged to go so much farther for all the common Necessaries of Life, which they used to be furnished with from Sicily. By Letters received Yesterday from Leghorn we have Advice, that the Day before a Tunefine Corfair, of 28 Guns and 350 Men, was forced into that Port by bad Weather. The said Corfair had made many Prizes in these Seas, which were sent to Tunis. This is the second Corfair that has taken Shelter in the Port of Leghorn within these few Days; every Instance of which gives great Disturbance to the Commerce of it, by the Alarm

[Price Two-Pence.]

Alarm it occasions, both in the Port and all along the Coast, amongst the Officers of such Ships as belong to Christian Powers with whom the Tunisians are not in Treaty.

Turin, Jan. 19. His Excellency Count Cristiani arrived at Milan the 10th of this Month. He was saluted at his Arrival with 24 Guns, and the Tribunals of Justice, and the Nobility, went to his House to acknowledge him as their Chief. His most Serene Highness the Duke of Modena, who also arrived there the 14th, was saluted with 36 Guns. He was met upon the Stairs of the Palace by the Tribunals above-mentioned, and all the Body of Nobility; at the Head of whom was the Great Chancellor Count Cristiani. They afterwards went into the Duke's Apartment, and acknowledged him as Administrator of the Government. His Serene Highness has since received the Compliments of the Commander in Chief of the Troops, attended by all the Officers; and also those of all the chief Magistrates of the Town. His Excellency the Marquis d'Aix, Knight of the Order of the Annunciation, and Governor of this Town, died at Chambery on the 16th Instant.

Madrid, Jan. 21. Yesterday being the King of Naples's Birth-day, their Catholic Majesties received the Compliments of the Nobility and Foreign Ministers upon that Occasion. The Chevalier de Guevara, lately appointed Minister Plenipotentiary from his Sicilian Majesty to the Court of Portugal, arrived here the Beginning of last Week, and had the Honour of being presented to their Majesties; he has since been to wait upon the Queen Dowager at St. Ildefonso, and intends continuing his Journey to Lisbon in a few Days. By Letters from Cadiz of the 15th Instant, we have an Account of the Arrival of a Register Ship from Cartagena, said to be very rich.

Dantzick, Jan. 25. Baron Prellak, heretofore Ambassador from their Imperial Majesties at the Court of Russia, arrived here last Wednesday Evening from Moscow. Yesterday Morning he was complimented by a Deputation from the Magistracy of this City, and in the Afternoon he continued his Journey for Vienna.

Vienna, Jan. 26. The Chevalier Correr, Ambassador from the Republic of Venice to this Court, will make his publick Entry into this City the Beginning of the Month of May next, and he has already begun to make Preparations for that Purpose. Her Imperial Majesty has appointed Lieutenant Colonel Felix to be Colonel of the Regiment of Foot of Arnim, vacant by the Death of the late Count Arnim.

Turin, Jan. 26. The Marquis de Clerici arrived here from Milan the Beginning of this Week, to compliment the King of Sardinia on the Part of the Duke of Modena, and to notify his most Serene Highness's having taken upon him the Administration of the Government of Milan; and To-morrow he will leave this Place on his Return to Milan.

Dresden, Jan. 27. The Hereditary Prince of Modena set out from hence Yesterday Morning on his Return to Vienna, extremely satisfied with the Reception he met with at this Court. A few Hours after his Departure the Electoral Princess was brought to Bed of a Prince, whose Birth was soon after made known to the People by a triple Discharge of the Cannon upon our Ramparts. The new-born Prince was christened the same Night by the Names of Joseph-Marie-Louis, &c. the Dauphin and Dauphiness of France standing Godfather and Godmother, by their Proxies Prince Charles and the Princess Christine; and to Day Te Deum was sung in all the Churches of this City, on Occasion of her Royal Highness's happy Delivery. They write from Leipzick, that a Body of twenty Robbers were secured last Week in that City, being Part of a large Gang, who have for some Time past infested this Electorate, and committed the greatest Disorders.

Frankfort, Jan. 28. The Austrian Officers continue to raise Recruits in this City and its Neighbourhood with great Success, several Parties having lately marched from hence in order to join their respective Regiments. Baron Reischack, Envoy Extraordinary from their Imperial Majesties to the States General of the United Provinces, passed through this City a few Days ago in his Way from the Hague to Vienna. We are informed by several private Letters from the Weteraw, that the Countess de Isembourg, Daughter to the late Count of that Name, died at Bodingen on the 18th Instant, in a very advanced Age.

Hague, Feb. 5. The States of Holland and Westfriesland will open their Assembly To-morrow, for which Purpose most of the Members are already arrived. Yesterday M. Cautebach, the Polish Resident, notified in Form to her Royal Highness the Princess Governante, and to their High Mightinesses the States-General, the Birth of a Prince, of whom the Electoral Princess of Saxony was safely delivered on the 26th of last Month. Prince William of Hesse Philipstall is appointed Major to the Regiment of Horse of Heynendorp, and M. Holthe is appointed Major to that of Dragoons of Nassau. On Friday last the Princess Governante, the Prince Stadtholder, and the young Princess, accompanied by several Persons of Distinction, took again the Diversion of Sledging upon the Voorhout, and through several of the principal Streets of this Place. They write from Lillo, that M. Prevost, Major of that Fort, died there a few Days ago.
